

SERVICES TO PEOPLE WHO ARE INCARCERATED

Interest Group Meeting

The Services to People Who Are Incarcerated Interest Group provides librarians who work with patrons in California jails and prisons with the opportunity to connect, collaborate, and identify best practices for serving incarcerated patrons. It consists of public librarians, special librarians, and library students interested in services to patrons in jails and prisons. The Interest Group prioritizes the ALA Statement on Prisoner's Right to Read and advocates for information access as a human right.
